

levəJ

In the Mix Workshops

Below are the different workshop options available for In The Mix. These can be tailored to suit the needs of your participants or students. For example, we can adapt the workshop for Option C to be a sensory session. Timings will change depending on the number of participants taking part. These workshops take place at Level Centre near Matlock in Derbyshire.

Option A	Option B	Option C	Option D
In The Mix Installation 5 people at a time (plus any carers)	In The Mix Installation 5 people at a time (plus any carers)	In The Mix Installation 5 people at a time (plus any carers)	In The Mix Installation 5 people at a time (plus any carers)
Self-led activity Creating your own installation with concertina paper and colours	Self-led activity Creating your own installation with concertina paper and colours	Self-led activity Creating your own installation with concertina paper and colours	Self-led activity Creating your own installation with concertina paper and colours
	Art Workshop Creating a layered group piece based	Performance Workshop Linking movement	Art Workshop Creating a layered group piece based on imagery and scenery from the installation. As well as using the core colours from the installation to play with colour mixing.	and dance with the shadows, colours and themes from the installation. Facilitated by a performance teacher.	on imagery and scenery from the installation. As well as using the core colours from the installation to play with colour mixing.

			Performance Workshop Linking movement and dance with the shadows, colours and themes from the installation. Facilitated by a performance teacher.
The length of this visit will be maximum of 1 hour unless you book more than one slot online	The length of this visit will cover half a day, either morning or afternoon	The length of this visit will cover half a day either, morning or afternoon	The length of this visit is likely to cover a whole day depending on the number of participants
Cost: Free	Cost: please enquire for more information	Cost: please enquire for more information	Cost: please enquire for more information

For more information please contact Kyla Hyslop: admin@levelcentre.com or call: 01629 734848.